St. John's Day .- Monday next will be the featival of St. John the Evangelist, a day usually celebrated with great pomp and display by the Masonic Fraternity. The Lodge at Kingstree, S. C., will unite in a procession and proceed to the church, where a public installation of the omcers elect will be made, and an address delivered by P. M. N. Levin, of Friendship Lodge, No. 9, of this city, on the "Principles and Practice of the Good Trip.-The brig Mary M. Francis, from this port for Havre, arrived there December 16, after an excellent run of twenty-five days. She was laden here by Messrs. Win. Roach & Co. The prevalence of good winds has caused most of the European bound ships from this port to make sages, and the bark A. B. Wyman, already reported, reached Liverpool in twenty-eight days, and the barks Jerome Jones and Juventa have

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC. -"The Streets of New York" drew a fine audience last night. The piece depends for its success more upon effecenery and local hits than upon the intrinsic merit of its plot or dialogue; but it was produced in a manner that could not fall to delight an audience. Some of the effects were applauded to the echo. We are glad to see how rapidly the ic resources of the Academy are being multipiled under Manager Ford's active and careful nanagement. "The Streets of New York" will be ropeated on Saturday night.

MASONIC ELECTION.—At the annual commu mication of Salem Lodge, No. 141, A. F. M., held at Mayesville, Sumter District, S. C., on the 14th the following officers were cleated serve for the ensuing Masonic year: Worshipful G. L. Warren, Master; Brothers J. Harvey Wilson, S. W.; Jas. E. Atkins, G. W.; Wm. G. Muldrow, treasurer; Hugh H. Wilson, secretary; H. Dick-son Corbett, (P. M.,) S. D.; Benj. P. Wilson, J. D.; Junius A. Mayes and C. K. Weatherford, stewards; J. B. Trimnal, tyler. A Past Master's jewel was vo-ted to Worshipful H. Dickson Corbett, the retiring

CRUMBS.—The German Friendly Society gave a "Christmas blowout" in the shape of a mammoth bowl of egg-nogg at their last meeting. The "Major," who made his debut on the Acad emy boards last night, was the observed of all servers during the morning, and his martial bearing was never more conspicuous.

The gay masqueraders, who were wont to per ambulate the city at this festive season, are noti-fice of a fulmination from the Chief of Police requiring them to unmask while in the street Who's afraid?

Interesting Occasion .- The pupils of Mr. C. H. Bergmann's academy, accompanied by their parents and friends, assembled at Lindstedt's Hall yesterday afternoon, at half-past 5 o'clock, to in augurate the Christmas holidays by an old-timed Christmas froilc. The hall was tastefully arranged for the occasion, and the Christmas tree was illuminated so as to display the numerous gifts to the best advantage. The presents and prizes, which were suspended from the branches and clustered around the base of the tree, were speedily distributed among the bright-eyed throng. Several addresses were made by the pupils, and the evening was passed pleasantly in a round of

THE CRICKET ON THE HEARTH. - Dion Bou. will be played at the Academy of Music to-night, for the first time in Charleston. The peculiarity of this play, and its great charm in the eyes of the lovers of Dickens' tender Christmas carols, is that it gives the whole story, without the addition or taking away of a incident. Usually a romance when put on the stage is so hacked and distorted as to be difficult of recognition, and it was the exceptional merit of Mr. Boucicault's dramatization of "The Cricket on the Hearth" which led Joseph Jefferson, the famous comedian, to say that it was the most admirable adaptation with which he was acquainted.

The company now at the Academy of Music played the Cricket on the Hearth at Savannah, and in a way to draw from Mrs. Hoey, one of the brightest stars in the dramatic firmament, the encomium that the performance would do credit to any theatre in the country.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT COLUMBIA, DECEMBER 22—HON. G. S. BRYAN, PRESIDING.—Exparte Antonio J. Gonzales, of Charleston. Petition for final discharge. M. P. O'Connor pro pet. Referred to C. G. Ex parte J. H. Lee, of Mariboro. Ex parte John M. Waddell. Ex parte Henry S. Crabh, of Mariboro. Petitions for final discharge. C. P. Townsend pro pet. Registrar's report in favor of discharge read and confirmed, and on motion, the judge signed, under seal, final order and certificate of discharge.

OIRGUIT COURT.

The court renewed the consideration of the case of Boykin vs. Germania Insurance Company et al. The court, on motion, ordered that the special pleas be set aside. This was after hearing full argument. The court also refused to grant motion that plaintif give security for costs, and that the case be suspended until security be given.
The court then proceeded to hear testimony in the case until a late hour at night, and adjourned without closing testimony.

Social Equality.—Our saplent legislators who are so anxious to give their colored constitu ents the power to thrust themselves whereve they are not wanted, might learn a lesson fro the test case made some months ago in Washing ton as to the right of colored persons to ent places of amusement. This case was carried to the Supreme Court, where it is now pending. The point of the joke is, that Wormley, the colored man who made the demand for admission to the National Theatre, is the son of Wormley, the famous colored caterer, who will not allow a colored person to be served in his restaurant at an price. Now it seems to the Washingtonians, a it seems to us, that the colored people should themselves desist from discriminating against their own color in barber shops and restaurants before they attempt to prevent the whites from managing their own business in their own way The truth of the matter is, that the proprietor o a house of business, white or colored, is the only proper person to decide who he will and who he vill not serve, and this is, we believe, the opinion of all the colored people who take the trouble to think about this huge question of "social equali-

THE REV. L. H. SHUCK .- The following letter from Mr. Shuck, now pastor of the First Bap-tist Church, to the ladies of Barnwell, is published n the Journal:

Airs. James Brown, Airs. J. A. Duncan, and others:

I have just received the valuable present from the female members of my church, and I hasten to express to the generous donors my high appreciation of the gift, suggested, I know, by the warm affection which they cherish for their paster. The painful separation, which sunders the ties hitherto existing between me and my muchived church, is felt most keenly by me, but you all may be assured that, although called to labor in another field, my affection for you will still continue. Indeed, I did not know how much I was beloved, or how much I loved my dear church, until the trying scenes of yesterday transpired. I hope, in the I rovidence of God, that I may be able to revisit Barnwell and renew the delightful associations of the past. May I still ask a place in your warm sympathies and Christian regards, and when we have passed through this vale of tears may we meet in that blessed home above, where adleus are never spoken and partings are unknown. May God bless you, my dear friends. Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. J. A. Duncan, and lears may we meet in that diessen nome above where adleus are never spoken and partilings are anknown. May God bless you, my dear friends as the fervent prayer of your late but ever after L. H. SHICES.

umental Pair opened on Monday. It is the grand-est affair of the kind that Sumter has seen. The Engefield Advertiser says : Richard Realf, the "Englishman," carpet-bagger, John Brown raider, and United States Internal Revenue Assesor for Edgefield, has resigned his office as assessor, and gone the way "Ward's geese" went. The "poor girl," the "simple Irishman," the wife of the said Realf, is still in our midst, and is apparently master of the situation.

Lewis Berry and wife, John Singley and Steve Merchant, all colored, who have been arrested by the civil authorities, confess to having perpetrated the murder of Mr. Dunwoody, of Newberry. The rife of Berry went to the depot after the murder was committed, and she and Singley watched one on either side of the building, while the others bored into and entered. No one cise, as we learn, has been implicated in this confession, and the public mind may therefore be at rest so far as the knowledge of who the assassins are.

COTT'S STAR SHIRT EMPORIUM

This Brace, in its peculiar construction, has a the advantages of SUSPENDERS AND SHOULDER BRACE

COMBINED.

First. It does not disarrange the Shirt Bosom. Second. It cannot slip off the shoulders. Third. There is less strain on the buttons of the pants than with common Suspenders. Fourth. Back section of the pants can be adjusted independently. Fifth. By means of the Adjustible Back Strap a gentie or powerful brace can be obtained. Sixth. It attaches to the pants at the same points that the ordinary Suspender does.
